

COMPUTER SCIENCE & BUSINESS TEACHER: KS3 COORDINATOR

Salary: £23,719 to £39,406 plus TLR 2b (£4,529)

Required for: September 2019

Closing date for applications: 7 May 2019

The Role:

Computer Science is taught at KS3, 4 and 5 whilst Business is taught at KS4 and 5 only.

You will coordinate the KS3 Computer Science/ICT curriculum, ensuring schemes of work are up to date, fit for purpose and provide a good foundation for success at KS4. You will monitor progress across KS3 and work with colleagues to ensure that appropriate interventions are put in place to address underperformance. You will support your colleagues in the development of consistently 'good' and 'outstanding' practice in the delivery of the KS3 Computer Science/ICT curriculum.

As one of the post-holders in the department, you will be flexible in contributing where required to support the Director of Business & Computing in developing the department and ensuring its smooth and effective day to day operation.

The Department:

Business & Computing is effectively a faculty which encompasses Business, Computer Science, ICT and Law. The team work hard to ensure that all students are provided with stimulating and challenging lessons in which they make good progress. The team are not afraid to innovate and see how the latest technologies and techniques can be used to enrich and strengthen the curriculum. All Computer Science teachers have their own dedicated IT suite.

At KS4, we offer GCSE Computer Science (OCR) and Level 1/2 Cambridge Nationals Certificate in Creative iMedia. At KS5 we offer A level Computer Science (OCR) and Level 3 BTEC National Certificate in Information Technology.

The Candidate:

You will be an experienced teacher of Computer Science and Business with a track record of teaching consistently 'good' and 'outstanding' lessons and making a significant positive impact on pupil progress and outcomes.

You must have the ability and willingness to teach both Computer Science and Business at KS4 and 5.

You will be a friendly, hardworking professional with a strong team ethos who has some experience of curriculum development.
