

Subject Leader - Music
Full Time Permanent
Salary: TMS/UPS + TLR 2c
Required: September 2018

We are looking for an ambitious, committed and talented teacher of music to join our successful Faculty of Performance and Expressive Arts, who is passionate about teaching their subject, communicates well with young people and who makes a positive impact on their personal development and progress. The successful candidate will be an inspiring classroom practitioner, able to lead and develop the subject, teaching high quality lessons across the age and ability range to further raise attainment for all learners.

Applicants should possess excellent communication and organisational skills, be hard working, flexible and professional. They should have high expectations of students, colleagues and self, displaying energy and inspiration in and out of the classroom, contributing to the school's extra-curricular programme and overall success. Madeley School has an excellent reputation locally and is regularly oversubscribed with superb examination results.

Candidates who are interested in the post are more than welcome to contact the school for an informal discussion or to arrange a visit.

Should you wish to apply, please return completed applications plus a supporting letter of no more than two sides of A4 explaining your suitability for the post, to Mrs Jo Goodwin, Business Support Officer by email to jg@madeley.shaw-education.org.uk

Please complete your application by Friday 18th May 2018. Interviews for the post will take place in the week commencing Monday 21st May 2018.

Madeley School is committed to safeguarding children; successful candidates will be subject to an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check.

Closing date: 3.30 p.m. Friday 18th May 2018
