Do you believe that every young person deserves a rich, rewarding and stimulating education? At Newfriars College we are passionately committed to harnessing the potential of every young person with Special Educational Needs. Do you believe that the College has a critical role in transforming learning and enriching the lives of young people and their families? Would you like to be part of something energetic, innovative and empowering? If so, we would welcome an application from you.

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a hardworking, passionate teaching assistant to join our College. We are seeking to appoint a highly motivated and inspirational individual who is committed to achieving excellence and ensuring that every child succeeds. Newfriars College is a newly established College with over 170 students aged between 16 and 25 who have a range of Special Educational Needs. At Newfriars, we are creating a vision that places our learners and their families at the heart of everything we do. The College is committed to a multi-disciplinary approach to meeting students' needs, and promotes high quality professional development for all staff.

Newfriars is part of The Shaw Education Trust which is a growing, multi-academy trust based in the midlands and the North West. As part of the trust, our new colleagues will benefit from high quality professional development and will be supported in their career progression by our experienced leadership team. Our sole aim is to enable every one of our young people to thrive and reach their potential as well as enjoying their time at Newfriars.

We offer access to The Local Government Pension Scheme (LGPS) as a valuable part of the pay and reward package for all non-teaching employees working in the Shaw Education Trust in addition to healthcare benefits through our staff insurance provider.

If you would like to join us on our exciting journey, then please apply.
