Do you believe that every young person deserves a rich, rewarding and stimulating education? At Newfriars College we are passionately committed to harnessing the potential of every young person with Special Educational Needs. Do you believe that the College has a critical role in transforming learning and enriching the lives of young people and their families? Would you like to be part of something energetic, innovative and empowering? If so, we would welcome an application from you.

The opportunity has arisen for a personal welfare support assistant to become part of our team. Newfriars College is a newly established College with over 165 students aged between 16 and 25 who have a range of Special Educational Needs. At Newfriars, we are creating a vision that places our learners and their families at the heart of everything we do.

Newfriars is part of The Shaw Education Trust which is a growing, multi-academy trust based in Staffordshire, Birmingham and the North West. As part of the trust, our new colleagues will benefit from high quality professional development and will be supported in their career progression by our experienced leadership team. In return your efforts will be recognised and rewarded and your contribution valued and celebrated by our whole College community. Our sole aim is to enable every one of our young people to thrive and reach their potential as well as enjoying their time at Newfriars.

If you would like to join us on our exciting journey, then please apply.

For an informal discussion about working for Newfriars College and the Shaw Education Trust, please contact: Sue Salt on 01782 987180

Our Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and young people.

All appointments will be subject to a satisfactory enhanced DBS disclosure.

Closing date for completed applications is 12pm on Friday 20th September 2019
