The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

What is the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act?

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act was introduced to make sure that you are not discriminated against when applying for jobs, if you have been convicted of a criminal offence and you have not re-offended for a period of time since the date of your conviction.

The Act allows certain types of convictions to be treated as "spent" after a certain (variable) period of time. You are no longer legally required to disclose to us convictions that have become "spent", unless the post you are applying for is exempted. In the case of more serious crimes, such as where the sentence is more than 30 months imprisonment, the conviction can never become "spent" and must always be taken into account.

Exceptions Orders exist to protect vulnerable client groups such as children, young people, the elderly, sick or disabled. In such cases, we are legally entitled to ask you for details of all convictions, even if they are "spent" or "unspent" under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act.

Cautions, reprimands and final warnings are not criminal convictions and are not covered by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act. They become "spent" immediately and we may only consider them when appointing to exempted posts.

Having an "unspent" conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment. This will depend on the circumstances and background to your offence(s). However, as some of our positions meet the requirements in respect of exempted questions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, all applicants who are offered employment to one of these posts will be subject to a criminal record check from DBS before the appointment is confirmed. This will include details of cautions, reprimands or final warnings, as well as convictions.

For all other criminal convictions you will only need to disclose any convictions that are not 'spent'. A conviction is regarded as spent if you have served a 'rehabilitation period'. These periods vary according to the sentence received.

Safeguarding

The Trust is committed to Safeguarding and Promoting the Welfare of all of its students. Each student's welfare is of paramount importance. We recognise that some children may be especially vulnerable to abuse e.g. those with Special Educational Needs, those living in adverse circumstances. We recognise that children who are abused or neglected may find it difficult to develop a sense of self-worth and to view the world in a positive way. We recognise that some children who have experienced abuse may harm others. We will always take a considered and sensitive approach in order that we can support all of our students.

The Trust's Child Safeguarding Policy applies to all adults, including volunteers, working in or on behalf of the Trust.

Everyone in the education service shares an objective to help keep children and young people safe by contributing to:

- Providing a safe environment for children and young people to learn in education settings; and
- Identifying children and young people who are suffering or likely to suffer significant harm, and taking appropriate action with the aim of making sure they are kept safe both at home and in the education setting'. Safeguarding Children and Safer Recruitment in Education DfES 2007

The Trust pays full regard to DfES guidance 'Safeguarding Children and Safer Recruitment in Education' Jan 2007. We ensure that all appropriate measures are applied in relation to everyone who works for the Trust who is likely to be perceived by the children as a safe and trustworthy adult including e.g. volunteers and staff employed by contractors. Safer recruitment practice includes scrutinising applicants, verifying identity and academic or vocational qualifications, obtaining professional and character references, checking previous employment history and ensuring that a candidate has the health and physical capacity for the job. It also includes undertaking interviews and where appropriate, undertaking List 99 and Criminal Records Bureau checks completing the academies disqualification declaration forms.
