

Walton Hall Academy, Eccleshall, Staffordshire, ST21 6JR

Classroom Teacher and English Subject lead

Salary range MS1 – UPS3 + SEN Allowance

potential TLR for English subject lead

Pay will be dependent upon experience and qualifications
(M1 £25,971.00 – UPS3 £42,020 + SEN Allowance £2292.00)

(Full-time and permanent)

We are seeking to appoint a highly skilled, adaptable and inspirational classroom teacher to join our team in September 2022. The ability to teach English at all levels, including GCSE English language and functional skills; an interest in humanities subjects and the ability to plan and adapt a curriculum to meet the needs of different students are all things that would further support an application for this role.

We are looking at this role being a potential TLR post with leadership of English, reading and communication across the school being the main responsibility. This will be dependent on experience.

Walton Hall Academy is located just outside of Eccleshall in a rural setting with extensive grounds and amazing facilities. We are a generic special school catering for the needs of secondary aged students up to the age of 19. We cater for a diverse cohort of students with a range of SEND. Our students are referred to us from Staffordshire and neighbouring Local Authorities.

Applications are welcome from both NQT's and experienced teachers. Expectations are that the successful applicant will:

- Set the highest standards for themselves and the students.
- Be an excellent, flexible, positive and inspirational practitioner.
- Have highly effective communication skills and a commitment to a collaborative team approach.
- Have experience of working with special needs learners or can demonstrate an aptitude and desire to learn and develop their expertise in this area.
- Be able to plan and teach a wide range of subjects to students with learning difficulties which may include: ASC, ADHD, Downs Syndrome, SpLD and SEMH.
- Have excellent subject knowledge of the curriculum and of new developments.
- Have the ability to teach across the whole age range of 11-19 years old.
- Work well in partnership with parents, governors & other stakeholders.
- Work within and embrace the ethos of the Academy and the Shaw Education Trust.

In return, Walton Hall Academy and Shaw Education Trust can offer you:

- The opportunity to work with a very positive, enthusiastic and skilled team of staff.
- Excellent resources and a unique working environment.
- Fantastic students who are eager and ready to learn.

- A supportive sponsor.
- An academy with a clear and strong vision.
- An opportunity to work in collaboration with other Shaw Education Trust Academies.
- Access to our Institute of Education and fantastic CPD opportunities to help you grow, contribute and flourish in your role and in the trust.

Candidates are encouraged and welcome to visit the Academy. Please telephone on 01785 850420 and speak to Julie Wood, Academy Principal or Sarah Harris, HR & Finance.

The post is available from September 2022
