Woodhey High School are seeking a Higher Level Teaching Assistant to join our Curriculum Support Faculty (SEND). The successful candidate will be:

- Experienced in supporting students with Additional Needs;
- Enthusiastic, diligent, flexible and innovative with a drive for improvement;
- A dedicated team player who develops excellent relationships with students and staff alike;
- Professional, leading by example and at all times promoting at all times positive behaviour for learning;
- Fully supportive of the policies and positive ethos of the school;
- Willing to participate in personal continued professional development.

Woodhey is a high achieving and inclusive 11-16 community comprehensive school. We are committed to providing a secure and caring learning environment for all our students and we ask our students to achieve, care and enjoy. Our aim is to develop highly-educated, well-rounded, considerate and confident young people who are willing and able to contribute to society. We aim for all students to make strong personal and academic progress regardless of their need or background. There are currently 1129 students on the school roll.

At Woodhey we use the term 'Curriculum Support' to describe our SEND faculty. Our aim is for all students to access mainstream lessons as much as possible, whilst considering their individual needs and outcomes and for students to become as independent of support as possible before they leave us at the end of Year 11.

Woodhey has specialist provision for autistic students and those with communication difficulties - there are 15 places for students across the borough. Students in the provision attend mainstream classes for the majority of their lessons, however the provision has two classroom areas with individual booths etc. for any learning or support completed outside of mainstream lessons. These classrooms also act as a base for students and a safe, supervised area for outside of lesson times.

There is an experienced SENCo who has experience of leading a large team of staff who are at HLTA, TA3 and TA2 level. A team of HLTAs support the leadership and management of Curriculum Support, including involvement with annual reviews. HLTAs also work with small groups, including the delivery of ASDAN.

Woodhey is a school within the Shaw Education Trust. The Trust is led by an Executive Leadership Team steeped in school leadership and improvement experience: www.shaw-education.org.uk. They are committed to the continued professional development of all members of staff and the sustained successful performance of all its academies.
