Woodhey High School are seeking to recruit a specialist Sociology Teacher to join our Humanities Faculty, who will also teach Religious Studies. The successful candidate will be:

- Enthusiastic, diligent, flexible and innovative with a drive for improvement;
- A dedicated team player who develops excellent relationships with pupils and staff alike;
- Professional, leading by example and at all times promoting at all times positive behaviour for learning;
- Fully support of the policies and positive ethos of the school;
- Willing to participate in personal continued professional development.

Woodhey is a high achieving and inclusive 11-16 community comprehensive school. We are committed to providing a secure and caring learning environment for all our pupils and we ask our pupils to achieve, care and enjoy. Our aim is to develop highly-educated, well-rounded, considerate and confident young people who are willing and able to contribute to society. There are currently 1127 pupils on the school roll.

Ramsbottom has become more of a residential area than an industrial town and has a strong sense of community. The town does have some thriving small industries, is a popular shopping centre for the surrounding area and has superb access to the nearby motorway network.

Woodhey is a school within the Shaw Education Trust. The Trust is led by an Executive Leadership Team steeped in school leadership and improvement experience: www.shaweducation.org.uk. They are committed to the continued professional development of all members of staff and the sustained successful performance of all its academies.

We shall be delighted to consider your application if you decide to apply and wish you the best of luck if you choose to do so. Applicants are asked to complete an application form and write a letter of application to the Headteacher of no more than 2 sides of A4, (minimum text size 11 Arial), outlining your experience relevant to the post and stating why you feel you would be suitable for the post

Woodhey High School is dedicated to the safeguarding and wellbeing of students; all staff must share this commitment. The successful candidate will be required to undergo appropriate screening including Enhanced DBS check.
